Dear John Robert,

I can't believe our Senior year is almost over. It's been great knowing you all these years and I've really enjoyed having you as one of my friends. We've had a lot of fun talking about everything even if it did cause some trouble in the library. <sup>It's</sup>

You did a great job on the yearbook & I think everyone would agree that it's the best we've ever had. I think you've helped to make the seniors of it even greater & the Senior Play was really wild.

Good luck in college & all that, but you'll be a success anyway with your looks & brains.

Love ya,

Sharon

John Robert,

We have finally made it to seniors & I can't believe it. ~~Remember~~ Remember all the little talks we use to have about your cousin. <sup>he!</sup> <sup>he!</sup> <sup>he!</sup>

Boy he is the funniest from my mind now. I have really enjoyed being your friend, you were always there when I needed someone to talk to. Remember the fair, and GARY, he is in the army now. We had a lot of fun with you & Marsha.

You were just GREAT in the Jr. Play & I know you will go far in life.

all of my love,

P.S. Remember A Han For All Seasons

Karen

I don't have much room, so I'll just say Good luck for now & always

John Robert Ward

Dear John Robert,

I hesitate to write this so close to where you wrote your name because I write like a louse.

Boy, we have had lots of fun in yearbook and Psychology this year.

Stay real sweet and be just the way you are now. I'm going to make a little confession.... I had a mad crush on you in the seventh grade. Just thought I would let you in on the big secret.

Love ya,

Patti

Dear Johnny,
We've finally made it, and now it's almost over. It's been so much fun being with you this year in Psychology & Yearbook - there are so many fun things I remember - like the office in the ninth grade. Well, I guess we'll see you next year at S.C.A. - I hope C.H.S. can do without me next year -

Dear John Robert,
It has really been nice going to school with you this year. You are a very nice, cute, and talented boy. Please stay that way always. But by the way, in your future plans, be a friend, Betty Bonting
Love Always,
Kay

John Robert,

Can you believe that we finally made it? It's hard for me to comprehend. Just think, this time next year we'll be finishing our first year in college. It's kind of ~~scary~~ scary isn't it? This has been the best year of my life and you have been a part of this year. You're a nice guy and being in English and Latin with you is unforgettable. Good luck in college and stay as nice as you are.

Dear John Robert,
What a year in Latin II!
Never would have made it without your refreshing remarks.
Thanks for keeping me awake.

The annual is beautiful.
I know it's the BEST EVER. You have a lot to be proud of.
Good luck in all you do.
I know you'll be a success.

Foreword

Years pass...leaves fall, snow covers the earth, and spring peeps from behind the winter clouds. The alumni of CHS move along the varied paths of life, remembering only the little things...the quick exchange of words as friends meet in the hall..the bus trips..the towering bonfires...football games when a tense score threatens a possible loss.

We can't do it over! It wouldn't be the same! Time must go on, and we must treasure these moments long after the excitement is gone.

The yearbook staff has tried to capture the activities of an eventful year that we might give a record you may cherish forever--this 1968 WAMPUS CAT.

Dear Mrs. Clayton,

The yearbook staff warmly dedicates this book to you, the "Littlest Roman." You may be small in stature but have a big part in our hearts. We know that we speak on behalf of the entire student body (especially the Latin students!) when we say there is no other teacher more dedicated to her profession, her students, and her school.

You have made Latin interesting to 200 pound halfbacks, 6 foot basketball forwards, and starry-eyed girls dreaming of Caesar and Cleopatra.

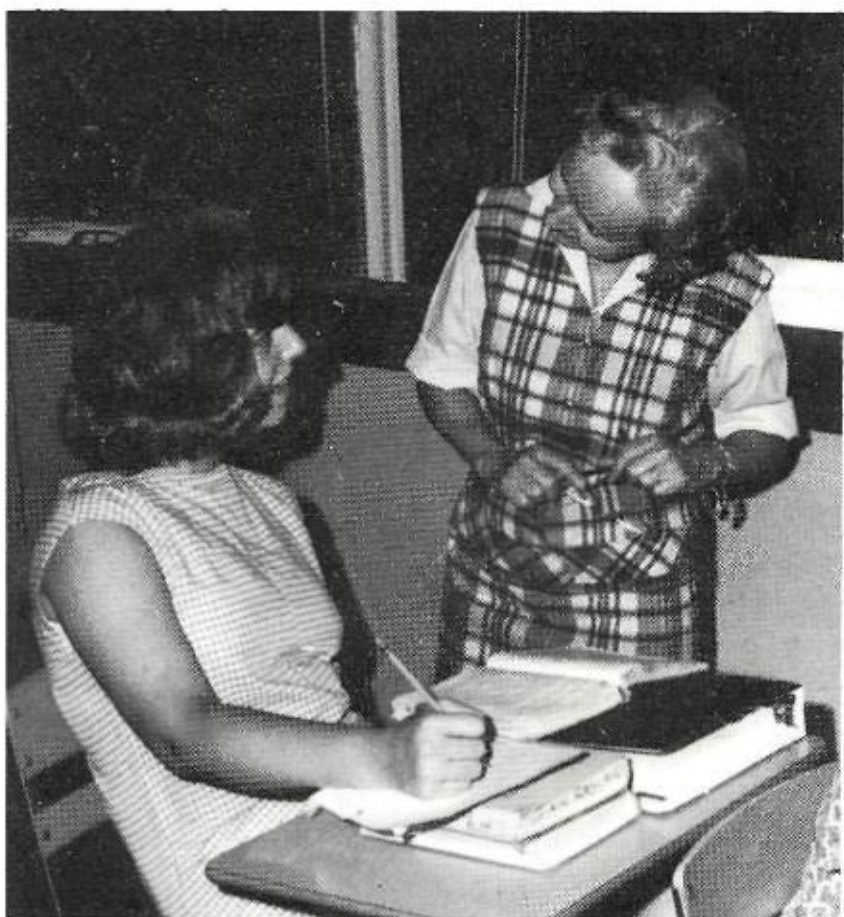

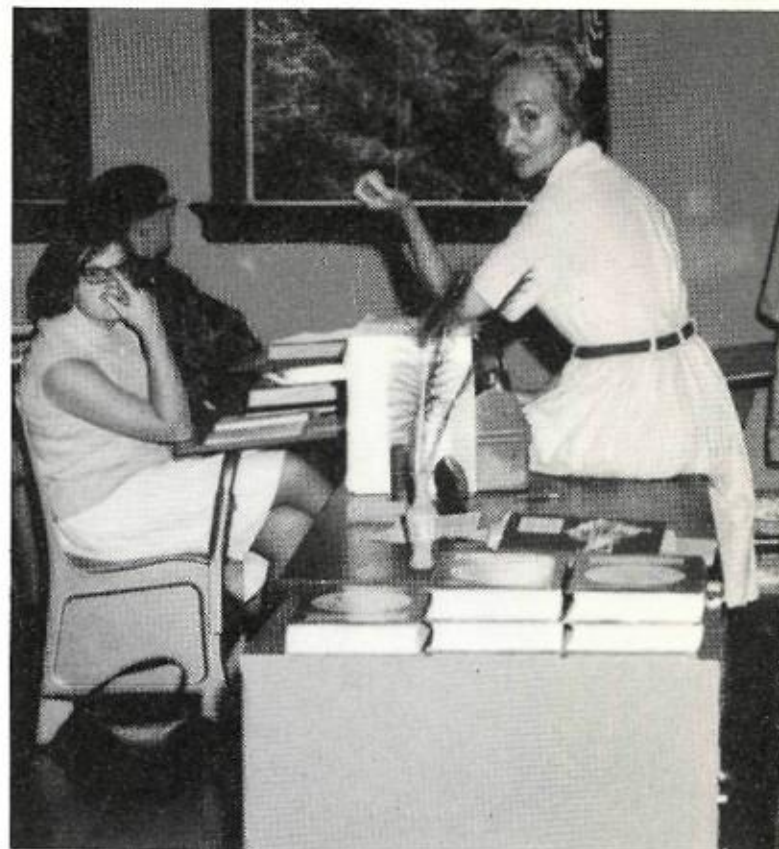

The yearbook staff wishes to thank you in behalf of the student body by making this 1968 WAMPUS CAT, your book.

The Call of Spring

Biting winter's frost is going, and the smiling wind blowing,
And the sailor rigs his boat along the shore;
Flocks roam now the pastures wide, the plowman leaves the ingleside
And the whitened mead with hoarfrost gleams no more.

---Horace

As the Romans laid aside the bulla and donned the toga, we don cap and gown for this commencement. This commencement is not merely the end of a phase of our lives, but as its Latin root indicates, it is the beginning.

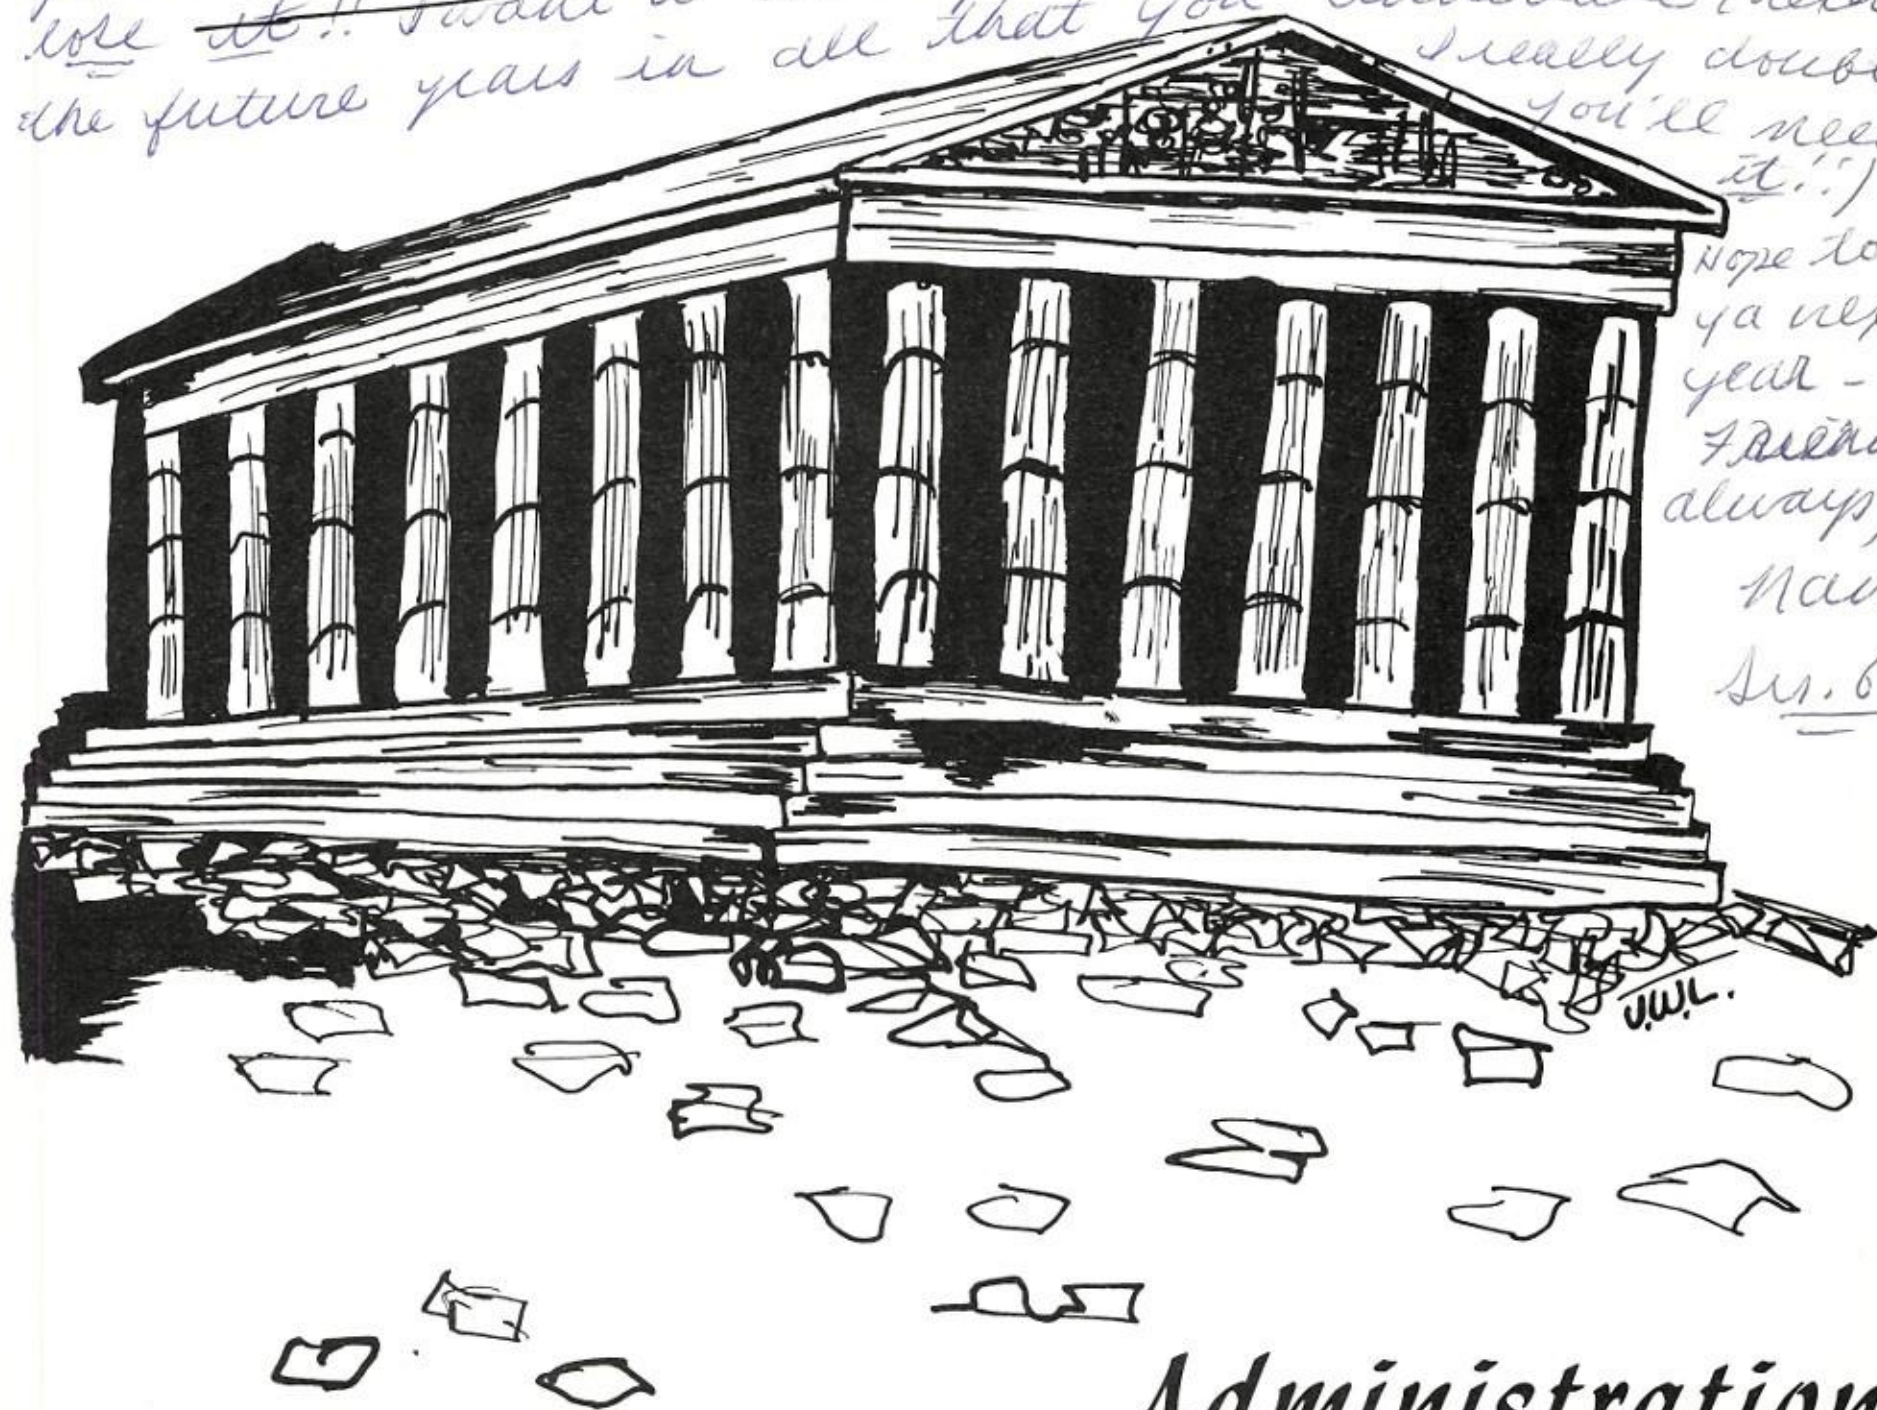

John Robert,

well, can you believe it?? Our big senior year is almost over!! and thus ends 12 long years of school!! (yeah, h<sub>2</sub>, h<sub>2</sub>!!) It really is sad but this year has really been great!! Remember 1st period English (all of us suffering together, ha!) - Oh yes and we can never forget the senior play--Can we "Detective O'Finn"!! (H<sub>2</sub>, ha!!)

We have had a lot of fun (remember Homecoming-h<sub>2</sub>, h<sub>2</sub>!!). I have enjoyed knowing you these past years. You have a good head on your shoulders--Never lose it!! I want to wish you the best of luck in the future years in all that you undertake (although I really doubt if you'll need it!!)

Hope to see ya next year -

Mr. Carl Stuart, Principal

I would like to express my appreciation to the Student Body for a very exciting and fine school year. We have had excellent leadership from our class and club officers. This, to me, reflects your desire and ambition to have an outstanding school at Conway High. You have a unique and wonderful school spirit. This is something very few schools have been able to accomplish.

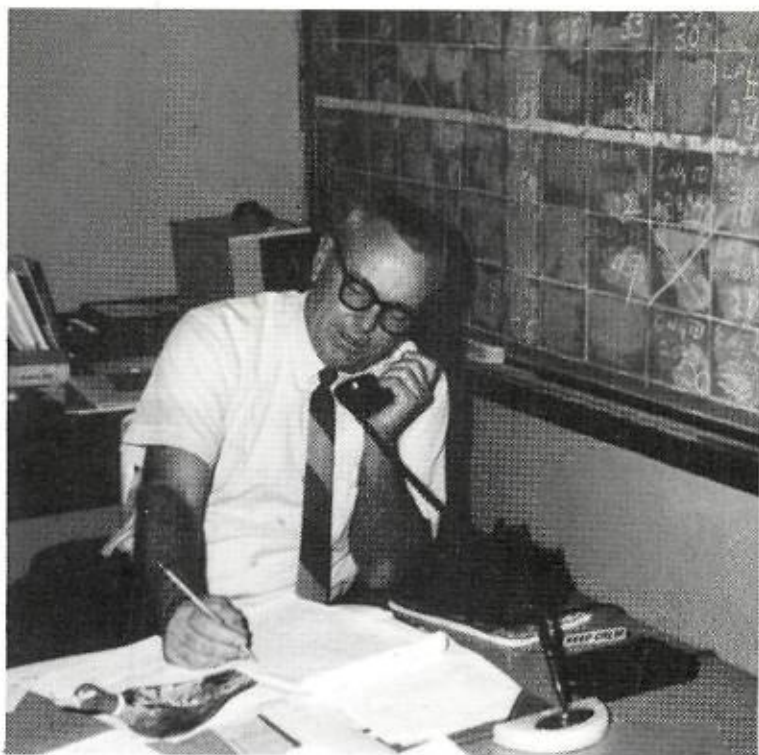

As we look forward to our new school plant and the many new changes in our curriculum, I trust you, too, are enthusiastic about the possibilities for Conway High School. I believe our new school will afford any student the opportunity he or she will need or desire.

To our new students, I hope you have found your place of service in this fine Student Body and at the close of this school year you will be able to say, in reference to school spirit, athletics and academic achievement, "I, too, am a member of the fighting Wampus Cats."

We wonder how Mr. Stuart can look so relaxed with all the work that goes with being principal!

Mrs. B. A. Lewis
M.A.; Government, World History

"Wait'll you hear this one."

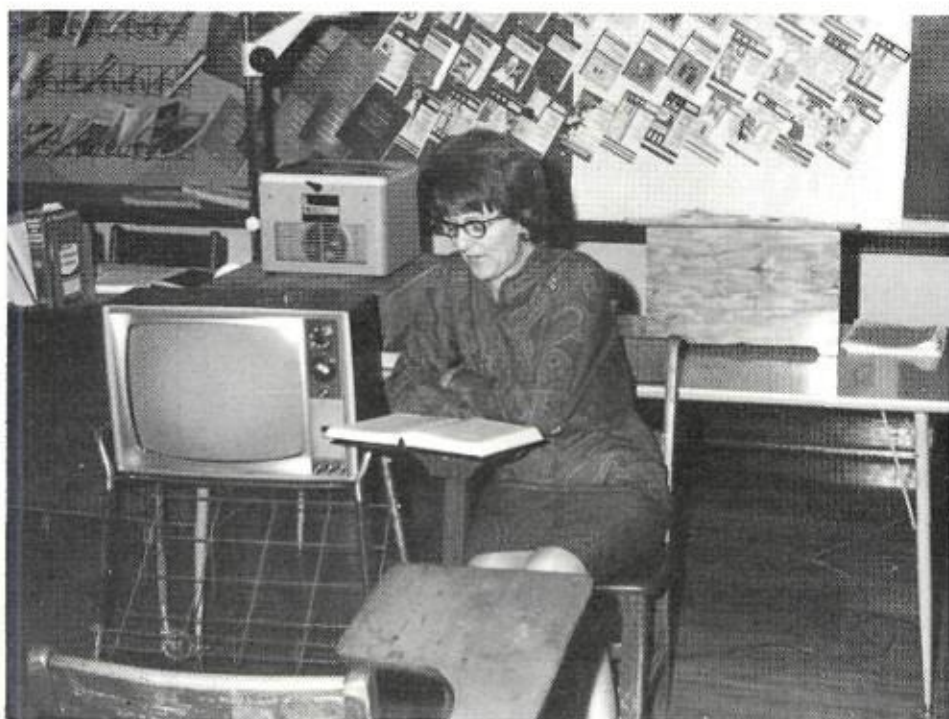

"I'll race you to the top."

Mrs. Gregory Selig
B.S.E.; American History

Social Studies

Designated with the purpose of making better citizens for the world of tomorrow, a social studies program, varying from the study of ancient history to family relationships and constituted of American and World Histories, Geography, and Government, is offered to the CHS students.

The increasing role of television in education.

Mr. George Turner
B.A.; World History

Mathematics

A wide selection of math courses is offered at CHS, even though only one year of math is required. The courses offered are: Algebra I and II, Plane Geometry, Trigonometry, and Senior Math. These courses are designed to challenge a student's thinking ability.

Mr. Joe Fred Young
M.S.E.; Senior Math

Mr. Doyle Jackson
B.S.E.; Algebra I, Algebra II,
Geometry

Mr. A. C. Anderson
B.S.; Advanced Math

B.A.; Math

Mrs. Frank Koon
M.S.E.; Algebra II, Advanced Math

Mr. Wallace Scott
B.S.E.; Geometry, Senior Math

"How to succeed in Business without really trying."

Science

In CHS students may elect to take three major laboratory sciences. These are biology, chemistry, and physics. The scientific experiments tried and studied are interesting; the lab equipments, excellent; the subjects, fascinating. High school is an opportune time to experiment with the different sciences and to decide whether one's future career may lie somewhere in the many-sided fields of science.

Mrs. Ray Kinser
B.S.H.E., M.S.; Biology

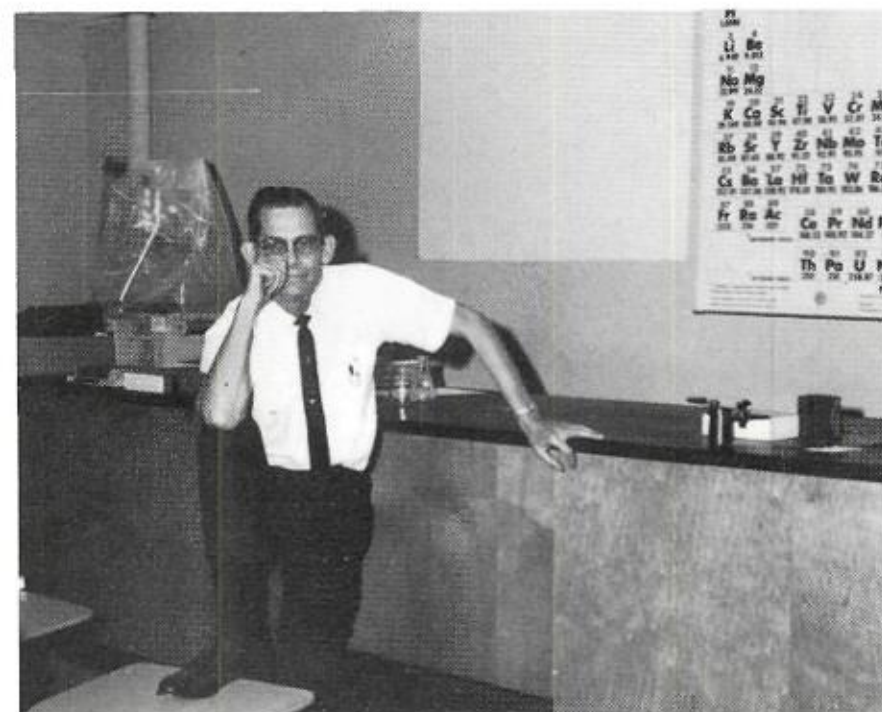

Mr. Don Dixon
M.S.E.; Biology

For tense, tired muscles, try Ben-Gay.

"But I DID study!"

Mr. A. C. Anderson
B.S.; Chemistry, Physics

Mrs. James Clayton
M.A.; Latin

Foreign Languages

During the first year of Latin, students study grammar and basic fundamentals. Those who continue with Latin obtain a broader outlook of Roman life through the study of Caesar's works.

Spanish gives a larger knowledge of the ways and customs of Spanish speaking people and teaches the student to speak, hear, and write the language.

Mrs. Farris adjusts Carolyn Thompson's earphones.

Mrs. Jeff Farris
B.S.E., M.A.; Spanish I, II, & III

Reading from "Hola, Isabel".

Mrs. Kenneth Spatz
B.A., M.S.E.;
Typing, Shorthand

Typing and Shorthand

Although typing is offered only one year, one may learn more advanced skills in typing by taking shorthand. Shorthand students learn not only how to take dictation, but also important secretarial skills. Shorthand teaches a skill which is valuable in almost any occupation.

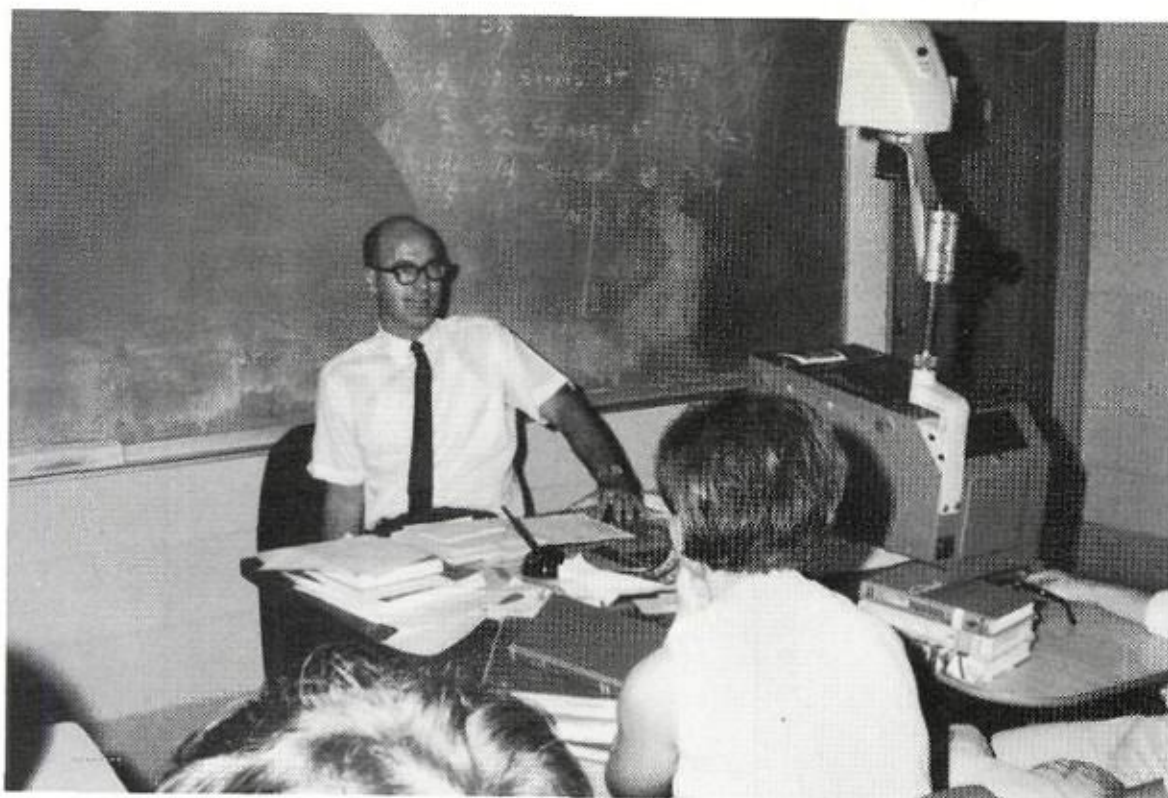

Mrs. Spatz prepares the class for a timed writing.

Dictating to shorthand class

Mr. James Hickman
M.E.; Introduction to Business,
Distributive Education

Introduction to Business Distributive Education

Introduction to business, which teaches the basic principles of selling, management, public relations, and efficiency, is designed especially for students who plan a career in the business world.

Distributive education, through which students attend classes and work part time downtown, is on-the-job training.

Mr. Hickman shows James Lane and Larry Lachowsky how to work a business machine.

Home Economics

Girls learn, through study and application, the basic mechanics of home-making: interior decoration, childcare, home nursing, entertaining in the home, and the creation of a cheerful, friendly atmosphere in the homes.

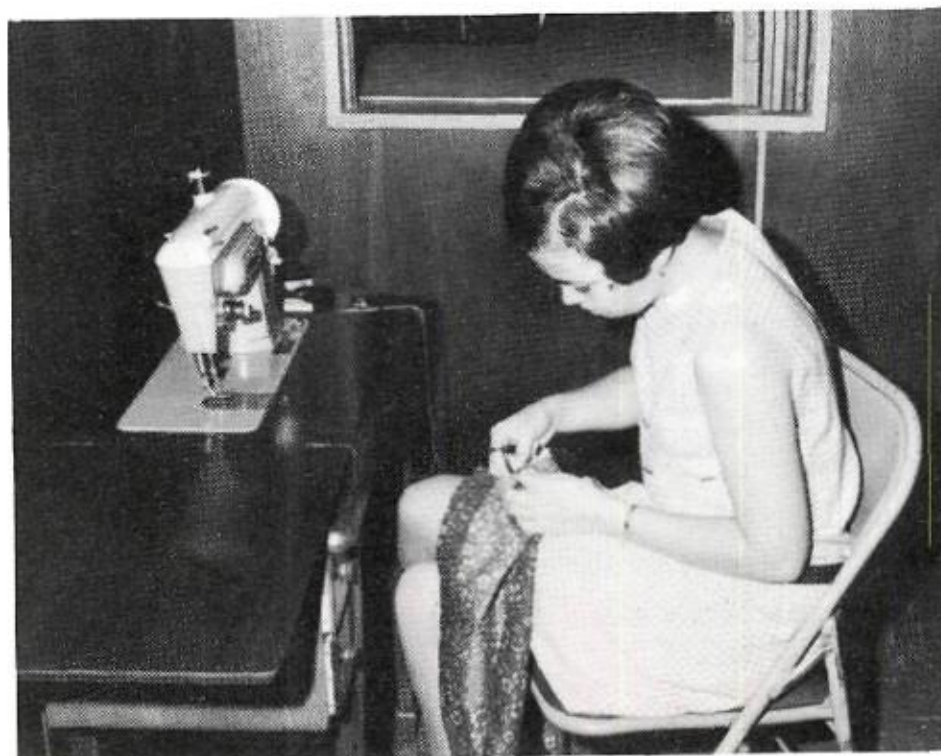

Mrs. Leroy Summers
B.S.E.; Home Economics

"And this, girls, is material."

Vocational Agriculture

Industrial Arts

Industrial arts teaches students hand and machine wood working.

With the realization that farming has become more mechanized, Conway High School places more emphasis on the use and care of farm machinery and shop.

Larry Lachowsky learning skills in welding.

Mr. J. F. Pew
M.E.; Agriculture

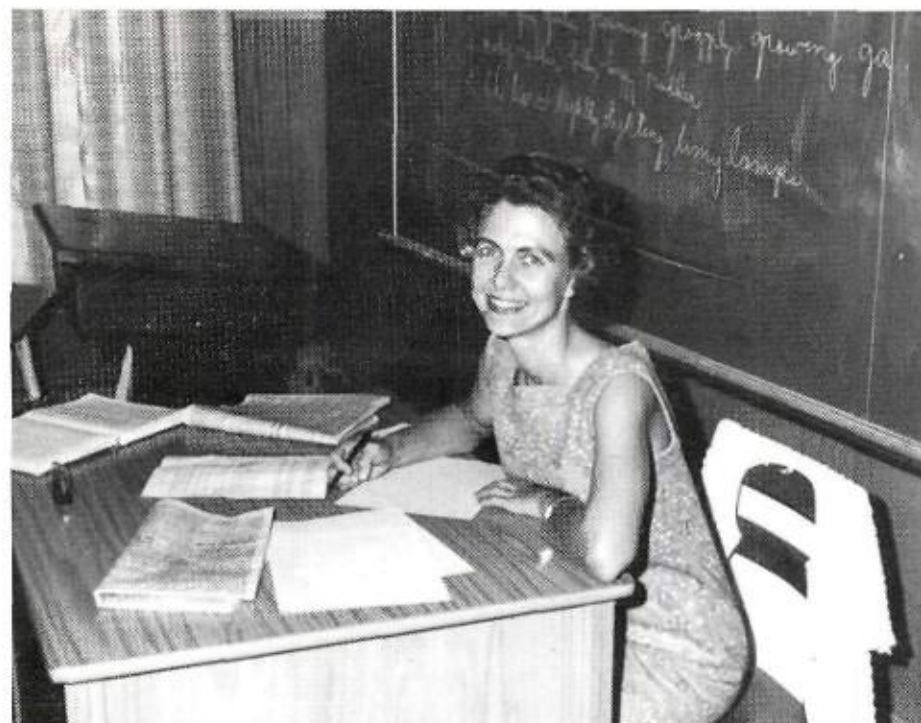

Sophomore boys in shop.

Speech

Speech, an elective course, is offered one year at CHS. Poise, expression, good grooming, and a true appreciation of drama are only the beginning of the goals for which speech students strive. Speech class deals mainly with public speaking and subjects relating to it. The techniques of being a successful speaker are studied, discussed, and practiced.

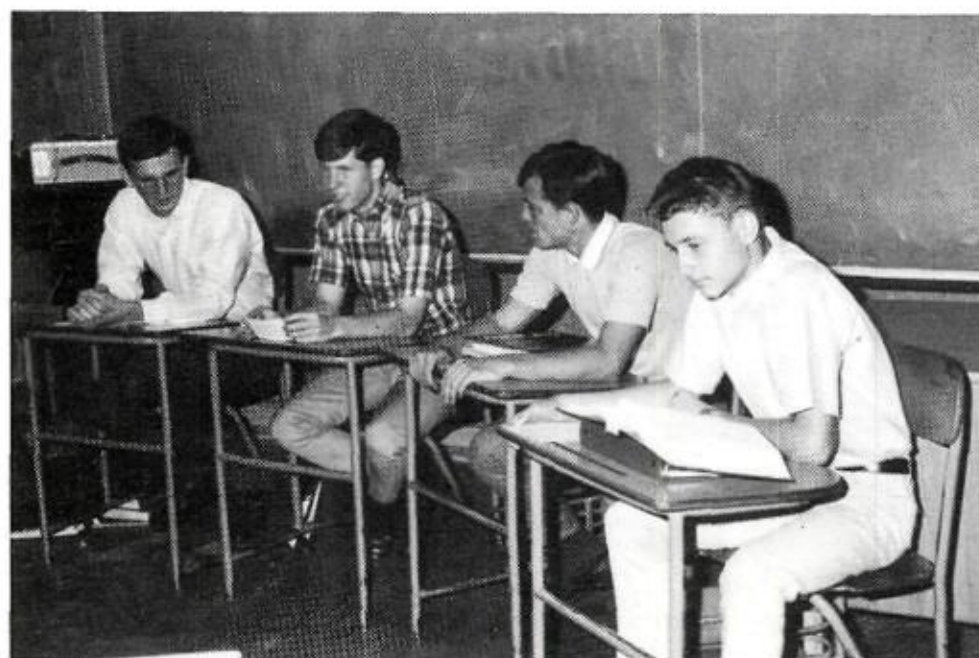

Mrs. Warren Oliver
B.A.; Speech

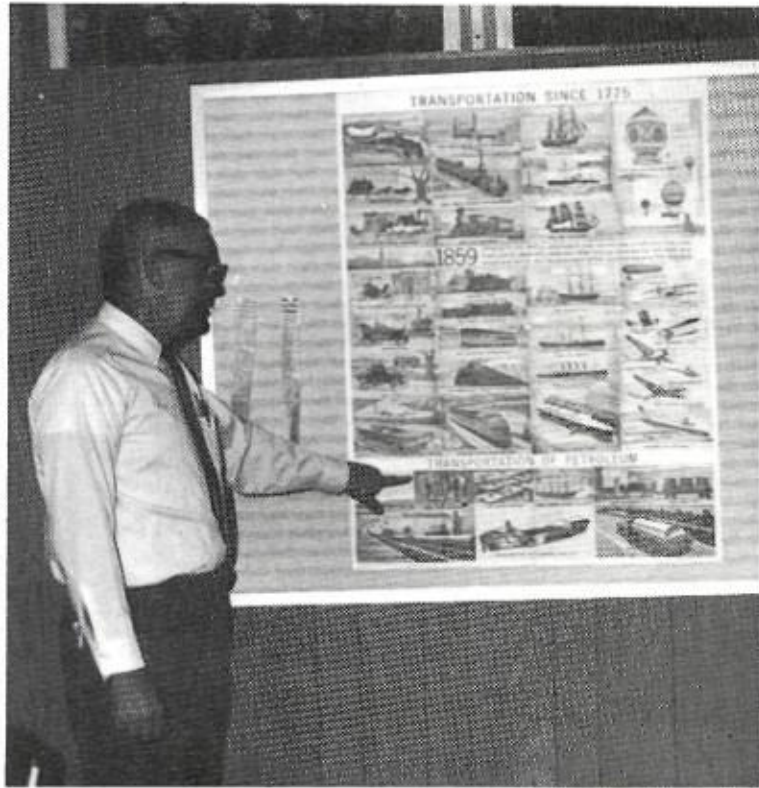

"Some of these speeches really get to you."

"I didn't want to discuss this in the first place."

Mr. Joe Fred Young
M.S.E.; Economics

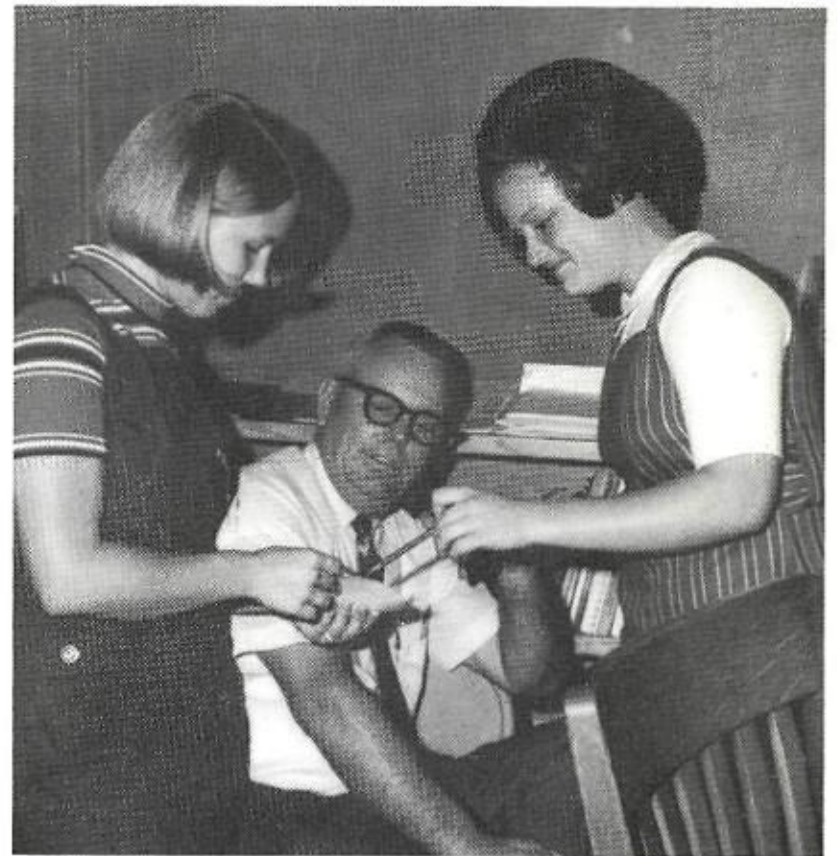

Mr. C. J. Robinson
M.S.E.; Economics

Psychology and Economics

Psychology helps students to understand themselves and others. Economics deals with the financial situation of the United States.

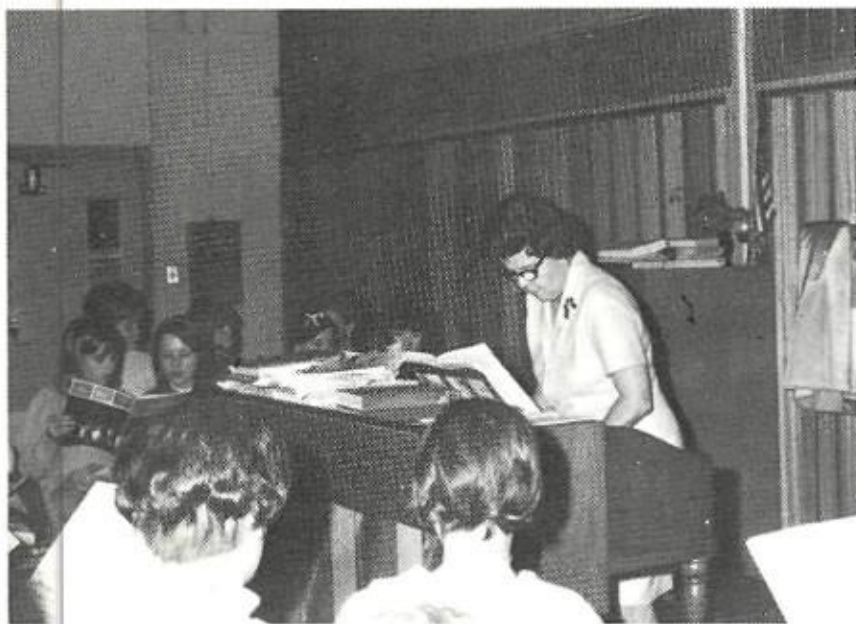

Mr. Jerry Bradford
B.S.E.; Psychology

"Now what's this got to do with Economics?"

Mrs. Ben Vann
B.S.E., M.S.; Vocal Music

Music

The Music Department of Conway High School includes the Band and the Glee Club. The Band helps promote school spirit by performing in pep assemblies, at football games, and in many other school functions.

The Glee Club presents the Christmas program and several other assembly programs throughout the year. It also performs at various civic clubs in our town.

Mr. Russell Langston
M.E.; Band Director

Journalism and Yearbook

The Journalism class publishes the WAMPUS CAT once a month. The difficult job of balancing the budget, planning layout, and writing copy was formerly directed by Mrs. Patterson, and is now directed by Mrs. Dale Ingram.

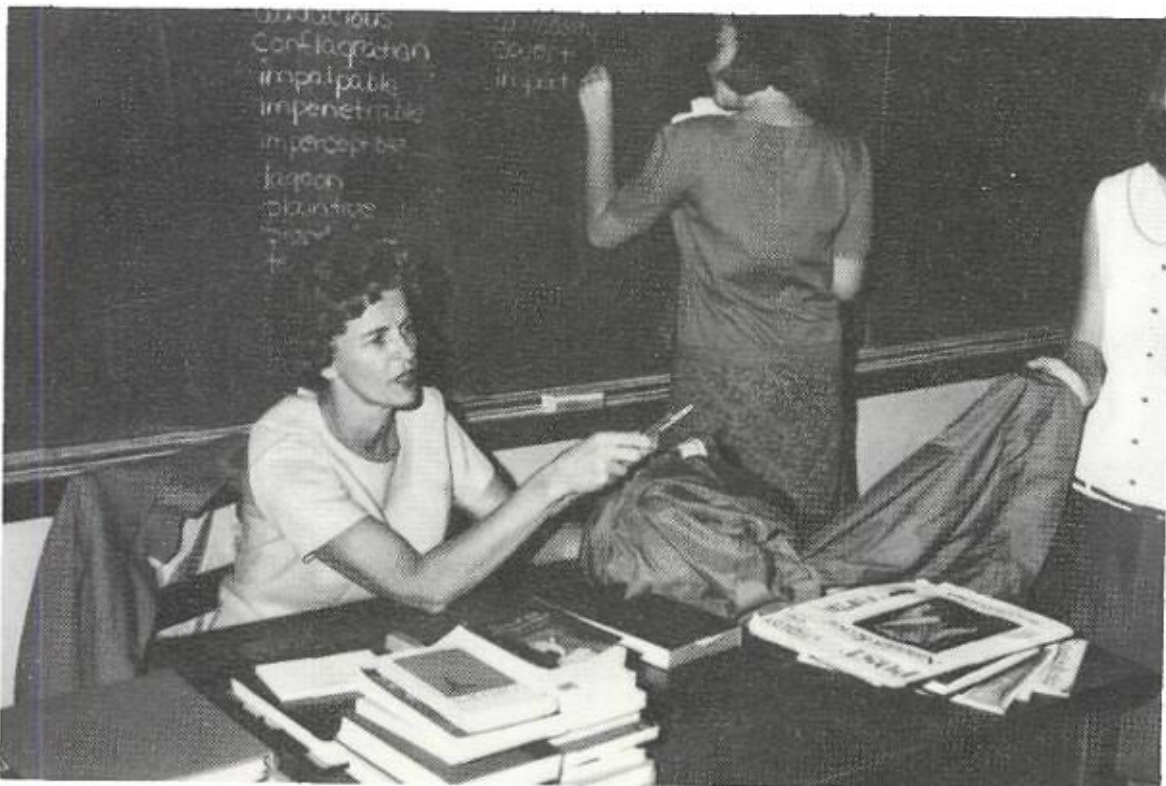

Another important work in our school is the yearbook. This is a book full of memories and activities that highlight the year. Mrs. Arthur Dunaway is the sponsor.

Mrs. Ingram looks over the work of Betty Ethridge and Jeannie Lester.

Betty Ethridge and Andy Dean seek help from Mrs. Patterson.

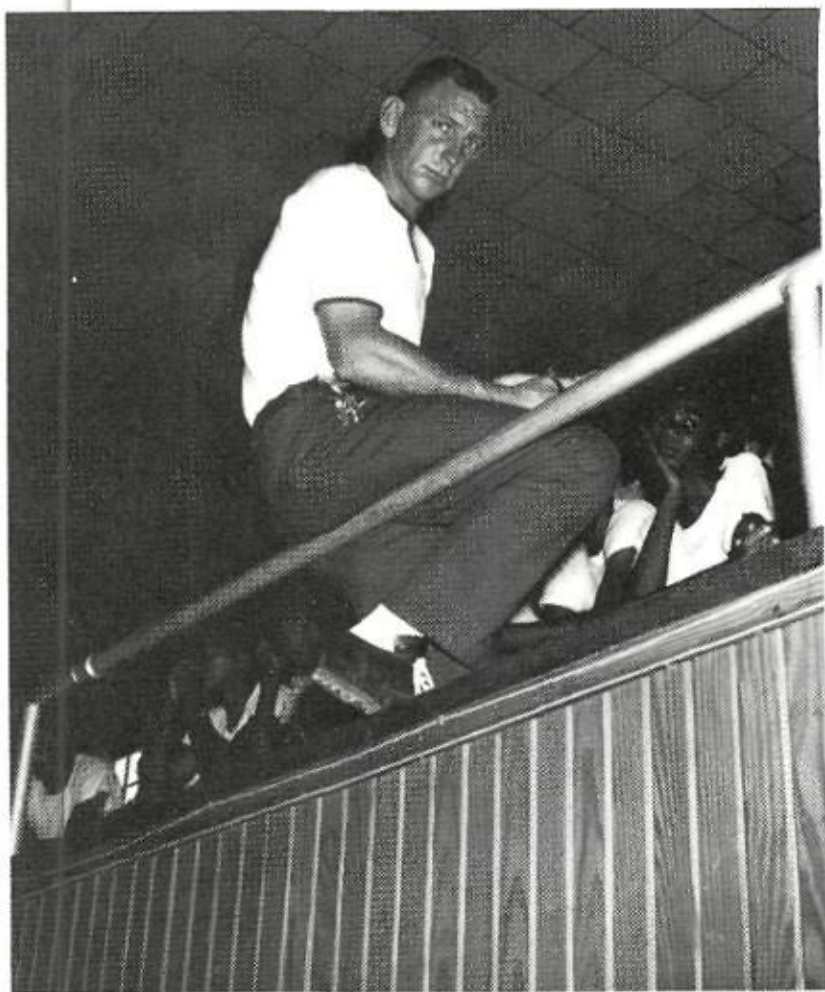

Mrs. Dunaway explains the composition of a picture for the yearbook.

Physical Education

Physical Education includes many worthwhile activities. Students learn games that develop coordination, health, and skill. Physical fitness, tumbling, and exercise drills are also included in the P.E. program, but most important, is the development of good sportsmanship.

Mr. C. D. Taylor
B.S.E.; Boys' P.E., Sr. Athletics

Mrs. James Boardman
B.S.E.; Girls' Physical Education

Girls in action

Mr. Dennis Fulmer
M.S.E.; Athletic Director

Miss Fredia Cummings
M.A.; Librarian

Library and Study Hall

The study hall and library are in connecting rooms which provide students a quiet place to study with reference material readily available.

Under Miss Fredia Cummings' supervision, the library is equipped with the latest maps, newspapers, magazines, and books.

Guidance Counseling

Guidance Counselling at CHS plays a big part in our lives. It helps us determine the courses we will take and sometimes even what vocation we will follow.

Mrs. Kenneth Wilcox
Guidance Counselor

Mrs. Miriam Scott, Director of Reading Lab.

"Would you believe five?"

"Say cheese."

"But my hands are dirty!"

"Ain't that cute?"

Dear John,
I have certainly enjoyed being in your class these past two years. Wasn't it fun working at the barn for our jr. prom and doing all the "fun" things we've done as Sr. I thought you were fabulous in the senior play, and I'm really proud of you for becoming an Honor Graduate. Keep up the good work.

Senior boys take time to talk during the lunch break.

Shannon Shock, Russell Williams, and Jim Montgomery are a few of the CHS students who attended the bonfires this year.

Karen Blythe and Sandy Bright stop at their lockers during the class break.

During BEAT NLR week Roger Starkey, like many other CHS students, decorated his car for the car parade.

Juniors Make Friends on Campus

Would you believe-----Juniors waiting anxiously for the bell??...

*Dear Mr. W.,
I'll sign on
"69" page to bring you luck.
it was great having you in Latin until you started translating the stair
you did a great job on the annual. Be good in college and don't be led from the apple and rocky road.

Features

The Appian Way, the most famous of the Roman roads, was the chief thoroughfare leading to Rome. Each day it brought the people of many lands and various cultures to the City. As the Appian Way symbolizes the heterogeneity of Rome, FEATURES includes the many facets of extracurricular activities of CHS.

Cathey Maxey reigns as Hi-Day Queen

Queen and her royalty reign over Hi-Day Activities

Queen Cathey Maxey and Maid of Honor Dinah Ludwick, who were chosen by the football team, and six maids chosen from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes, reigned over the 1967 Hi-Day activities.

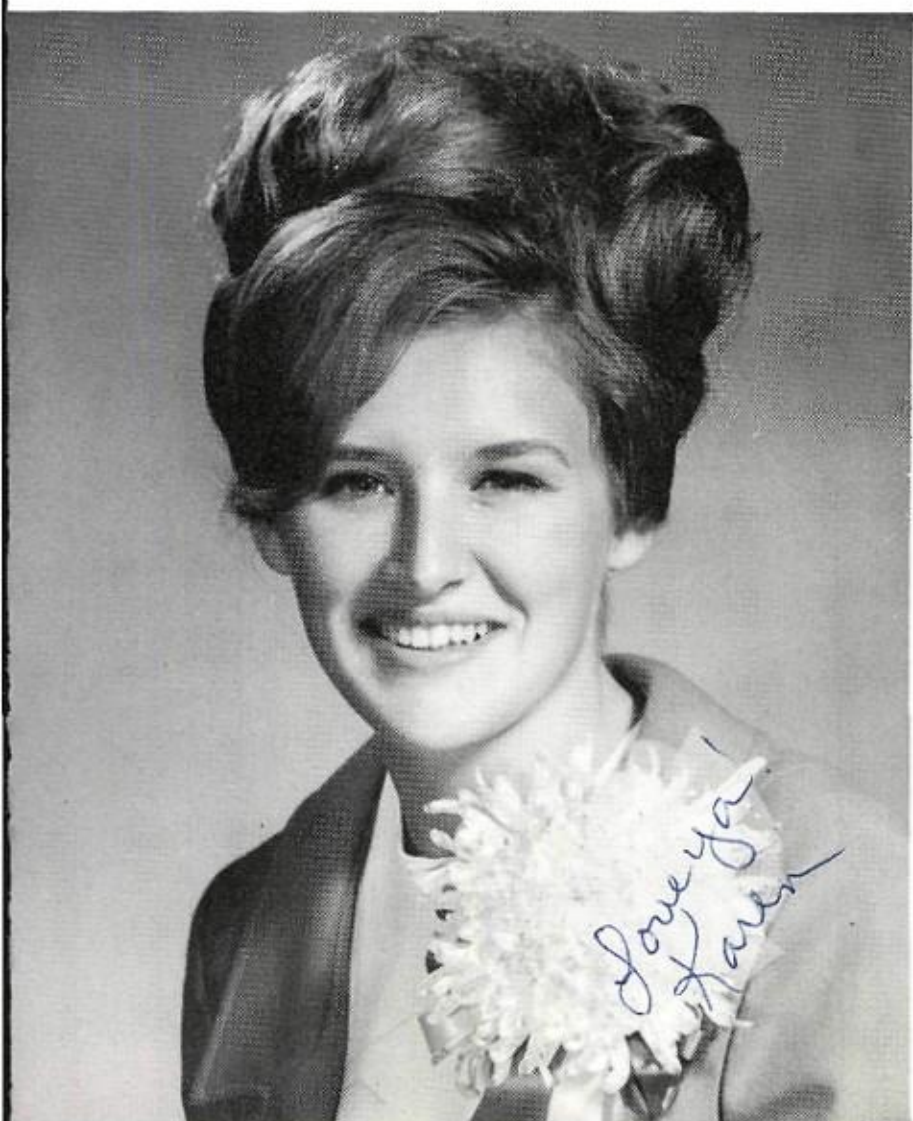

The Queen was crowned and the maids were presented to the Student Body during a morning assembly. The afternoon activities included a tea in the Home Economics cottage for the former lettermen.

Queen Cathey was crowned again during the field ceremonies before the game with Benton. Despite the rain, the Wampus Cats defeated the Benton Panthers 13 to 0.

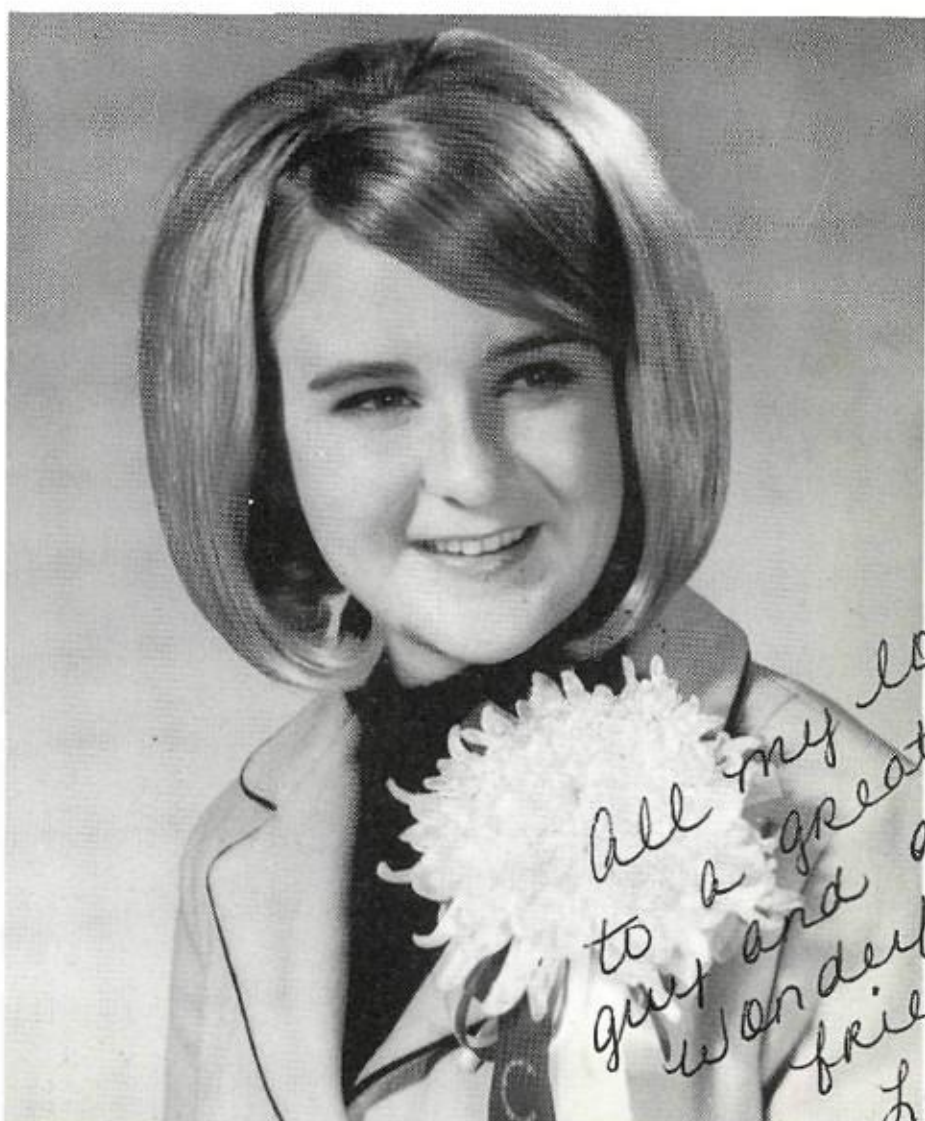

The Hi-Day activities were rounded out with a dance in the Gymnasium put on by Peppers Club, during which Queen Cathey led her court in the annual Grand March.

Who's Who, 1968

The Who's Who competition is sponsored by the annual staff to recognize various student personalities, all of whom were selected by student vote. For the first time the Most Beautiful and Most Handsome students were selected by television celebrities from ten CHS nominees. Wide student representation is assured, since no student can win in more than one category. The annual is privileged to present the winners.

Highlights of the Beauty Revue

Dear John Robert,

I must say that you have done a pretty good job of keeping good "ole" C.H.S. alive. I want to congratulate you on a job well done. (Especially the who's who!)

You are a great guy who has a brain, the size of my head! Ha! I give you all the luck in the years to come. I know that you will go far in life. So keep up the good work for C.H.S.

Best wishes,

Peppers Club

Peppers Club is one of the most active and oldest clubs in Conway High School. It renders a very worth-while service to our school by promoting good sportmanship and school allegiance.

The main responsibilities of the club are sponsoring Hi-Day, selling scorecards, decorating goalposts at all home games and backing the Wampus Cats.

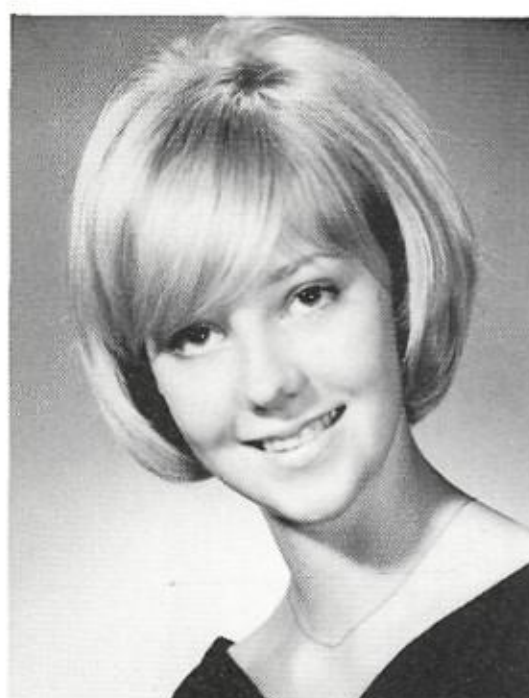

Persons wishing to become members submit paragraphs to the club stating why they would like to be members. Selection is based on a vote by the club and the faculty.

Mr. Russell Langston, Director

The Conway High School Band is one of the most outstanding bands in the state. In October of this year the CHS band won the Sweepstakes Trophy at the John L. McClellan High School Marching Band Contest. The tremendous success of our band is attributed to the capable direction of Mr. Russell Langston. This year the CHS band had 22 students who made the All-Region Band and 5 students who made the All-State Band.

The highlight of the year was the CHS Band's invitation to play in the Cotton Bowl Parade in Dallas. To be considered for an invitation to participate, a band must be a first division winner in both playing and marching in state-sponsored events, must provide letters of recommendation, films showing their marching skill, and tapes and recordings demonstrating their quality of musicianship.

The Conway High School Band was the only Arkansas band to participate in any of the Bowl Parades.

The band also helps in building school spirit and playing at pep assemblies and football games in and out of town. After marching season the band turns to concert music. This spring the band gave four concerts.

Dear J R,
 I really enjoyed working with you on the Senior Play and I really didn't enjoy working in English class. But that's the way it goes. Maybe we can avoid English from now on. I'll see you this summer.

Conway High School Glee Club

Officers from left to right: Seated, Charles Spear, President; Patti Satterwhite, Vice-President; Lorna White, Secretary; Stephen Thacker, Reporter, Rusty Williams and Gayla Gwatney, Librarians; and Wilda Bowie, Treasurer.

The Conway High School Glee Club is a very unique organization at CHS because it is the only one of the many clubs on the campus that is a combination class and club. The members meet for one hour each day and practice in order to prepare musical programs to be presented throughout the school year. The highlight of the year for the club is the annual music festival which is held in Clarksville, Arkansas every spring.

The Muses were nine in number, the daughters of Zeus and Mnemosyne, Memory. "They are all," writes Hesiod, "of one mind, their hearts are set upon song and their spirit is free from care. He is happy whom the Muses love. For though a man has sorrow and grief in his soul, yet when the servant of the Muses sings, at once he forgets his dark thoughts and remembers not his troubles."

Mrs. Ben Vann, Director.

Library Club

The Library Club is the service club that benefits CHS students and faculty. Its members help others locate books and other materials and familiarize themselves with library procedures. Assistants check books out and in, shelve books, and further aid Miss Freida Cummings, librarian, in any way that they can. The Library Club has been an active charter member of the Arkansas Student Librarians' Association since its organization seventeen years ago and has had several State Officers. Carole Wood is now State Historian. Phyllis Gilmore is now serving as President of the ASLA District X.

Latin Club

Latin Club teaches students about Roman culture and civilization.

The club is divided into three parts similar to those of the Roman people. They are the Senators, Knights and Citizens. When a student first joins, he is sold as a slave to older members.

Latin Club holds membership in the Junior Classical League. Some of the special events through the year are a slave sale, Roman banquet, induction ceremony, Saturnalia, and State and National Convention.

Inter-Club Council

The Inter-Club Council was formed during the summer of 1967 to promote better cooperation between all the clubs of Conway High. The Council permits the clubs to join in a unified effort to schedule the big events of the school year. An outstanding member from each club was selected. Jerry Reid, vice-President of the Student Council is chairman. Mr. Carl Stuart is the sponsor.

First row: left to right: Tom Perry, Keith Shiedler, John Bumpers, Jimmy Loyd, and Tommy Slinkard. Second row: Bill Weidower, Eddie Anthes, Jim Weidower, Jeff Dunaway, and Paul Loyd. Third row: Richie Massey, Gary Reifeiss, John Ryan, Fletch Smith, and Steve Conner.

The Conway High Swim Team was organized in 1967. These boys had a very good record considering that they are such a young team. Because of their hard work and devoted efforts, they all deserve our recognition. Bill Arnold was their coach, and he also devoted much time and hard work to insure the success of the team.

Track

At CHS there are many fine and hard working boys who go out for track each year. We usually have a very fine team and 1966-67 season was no exception. The man behind the team is Dennis Fulmer, a well qualified track coach, who by pushing the boys and making them work harder, came up with another fine team that was ranked runner-up in Region 3-AA.

Dear John -

Hasn't this year been an absolute blast!
and hasn't Mr. Bradford been great this last semester. Here we are, seniors about to graduate and I'm not at all ready nor I'm not all sad either. Stay sweet like you are and you'll go far in the future. You have

Our Wampus Cats

set the pace

for all Conway!

Our Conway Wampus Cats are champions because they dedicate themselves to performances that sometimes outstretch their ability. At First National, we are proud of the prestige and honor that our Wampus Cats bring to Conway.

Like the Wampus Cats, we are always striving for quality and excellence in our service to our community. We congratulate the Wampus Cats and the entire student body, and our best wishes are always with them.

FLEMING & SONS

This is a symbol of the future that lies out of the reach of the Seniors of 1968. We will never experience the daily problems that will exist here. Our footsteps will never be heard on the doorsteps, our voices will never echo in the halls. But yet . . . we feel that this building, and all that it will house, is a part of us. It was conceived when we were but lowly sophomores and it grew and developed with us. Each test that was taken, each brick that was laid . . . step by step to an ultimate goal, the finish. This is our heritage. Within the walls of this structure we leave a part of our lives to those who will travel the same road after we are gone.

John Robert,

Congratulations on doing such a fine job on the annual. (You sure keep a good secret!) I knew you'd never forget the senior play (after all you were the leading man) and all the fun we had. Good luck next year and in the future when the class of 68 is separated.

Love, Cathy

The importance of a yearbook is not in the book itself, but in the importance you, the Student Body, attach to it. We would like to express our appreciation to one of the most school-spirited Student Bodies CHS will ever see.

The goal often exceeds the actual attainment. We would like to thank the faculty for helping us inch closer toward our goal of presenting a yearbook worthy of CHS.

Last, but not least, we express appreciation to the advertisers who have played a big part in the production of this yearbook.

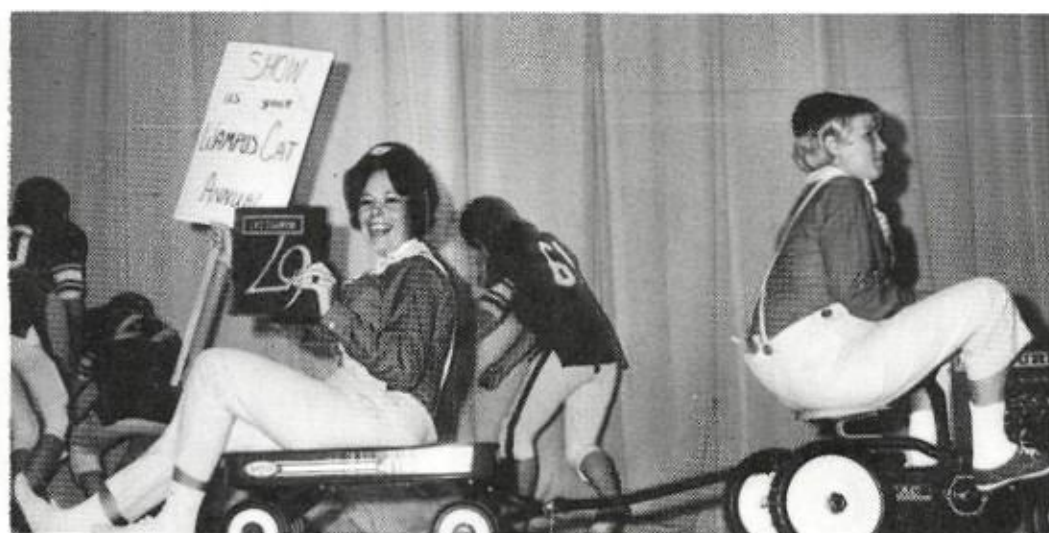

John Ward, Paula Anthony, Judy Koon, Mike Stout, Jamie Prothro, Mrs. Dunaway, Linda Beene, and Dinah Ludwick attended the State Yearbook Convention at SCA this past summer.

The yearbook skit, "The Best Commercial of the Year", owed much of its hilarity to "cheerleaders" Lanny Noggle, Dick Cisne, and Bruce Joyner.

Said to be the fairest of them all are raven-haired Owen Floyd and miniskirted Kenne Ketcheside.

Two of the 'brightest' members of the yearbook staff are Linda Beene, Dinah Ludwick, shown in a scene from the skit.

Recognize these tough players? They are Kay Fronabarger (15), Cheryl Hancock (10), Donna Brenske (61), Betty Patterson (27), and Judy Koon (11).

Dear John Robert,

This is the hardest task I have ever began to undertake. John Robert, I can't even begin to tell you how much I have loved being your friend. Without you, I swear, I could have done nothing!!

When I undertook something, you were always there to back me up, criticizing yes, help too! You have meant more to me than anyone at C.J.H.S. or C.H.S., you were my first real friend and we have been friends ever since.

I have valued our friendship, and I never want it to end, even when we never see each other again, which I hope never comes.

Like I said before, you have meant the world to me, without your book reports, boy, I would be DEAD!! Book Reports is not all of course, there is ~~so~~ much I couldn't begin to get it on this page. I feel indebted to you, I don't think I could ever pay you back.

Our last annual, at least we can be especially proud of it! Our last yr. that we can be proud of too! I feel like my life has almost ended, but of course, as everyone says, it has really just begun. I can't see that, especially since we will be away from each other, that doesn't sound too great to me! As I said, I can't express my feelings, but I think you know. Remember me always, without a John David (H.S.)

Dear Ward,

Well, I don't know exactly where to begin on my "book" because I have just an awful lot to say to you! You have always been so good to me, and at times when I have felt sad, you could always make me happy again. Having you as a friend has meant so much to me. I have always felt that I could turn to you for help and I must say that you have helped me more than you can know! Remember all the talks, discussions, and fights (Religions) we have had in Yearbook this year — and while you are remembering, just remember everything because it was all so important.

As a person — Ward, you are great! You have got a wonderful personality and a funny sense of humor. We've had a lot of good laughing-times too, haven't we?

I just want to wish you all the luck that you could possibly have, because a guy like you sure deserves it! Also, whatever you do and wherever you go, always remember that I'm your close friend and I will always do all I can for you because you've done so much for me. After graduation, many new things will come your way — you're gonna make a lot of new friends, but please don't ever forget our CHS days, and all your old friends, and me.

Love ya always,
Gat

John Robert,

We have all had too much fun and too many laughs this year to let them go unexpressed. My only regret is that it is almost over. I hope that next year will be as great as this one has been and I will do what I can to keep CHS just as it is now for you and all your fellow departing senior classmates.

I would wish you good luck but if you keep your same smile and glowing personality, you won't need any.

Dear John,
I really have enjoyed being in Yalta. And English with you. Live forever you for a long time and I really do hope you'll be good luck. Love
James

John,
This has really been a great year. We've had a lot of fun, especially with the Tennis play. Day live never had as much fun. We'll never forget it.
Good Luck always.
Linda (AMANTHA)

John Robert,
This has been one great year! (But I'm glad it's the last.)
We enjoyed knowing you the last few years, it's added a lot of experience got just the right personality, and I know you'll make a great Marine Star. HA!
Best of luck in that field! Stay just the wonderful guy you are now.
See ya.

Love you

My dear, one can not quite express my feelings for you. We have had such lovely times together and I only wish that we shall have a long and lasting friendship. Any vicissitude in your dynamic personality would be a detriment to your entire person. My thoughts are with you always,
